- 2.1.8. Your right in relation to automated decision making including profiling - We do not process personal data in this way.
- 2.2. You are not required to pay any charge for exercising your rights. If you make a request, the law gives us one month to respond to you but we have undertaken to respond as soon as possible and in any case 28 days.
- 2.3. Please contact us using the details in Section 1 above if you wish to make a request.

3. What data does the data protection legislation cover?

- 3.1. Data protection legislation is to protect the data privacy of individuals and uphold your rights over your own personal data.
- 3.2. Definitions:
 - 3.2.1. Personal Data - means any information relating to an identified or identifiable person ('data subject'); an identifiable person is one who can be identified, directly or indirectly, in particular by reference to an identifier such as a name, an identification number, location data, an online identifier or to one or more factors specific to the physical, physiological, genetic, mental, economic, cultural or social identity of that person.
 - 3.2.2. Processing - means any operation or set of operations which is performed on personal data or on sets of personal data, whether or not by automated means, such as collection, recording, organisation, structuring, storage, adaptation or alteration, retrieval, consultation, use, disclosure by transmission, dissemination or otherwise making available, alignment or combination, restriction, erasure or destruction.

- 3.2.3. Data Controller - means the person or organisation which, alone or jointly with others, determines the purposes and means of the processing of personal data.
- 3.2.4. Data Processor - means a person or organisation which processes personal data on behalf of the Data Controller.
- 3.2.5. Third Country - means a country or territory outside the United Kingdom.
- 3.2.6. Lawful Basis - means one of the six lawful reasons to process personal data as set out in Article 6 of the UK GDPR. At least one of these will apply whenever we process your personal data.

4. Why do we have your information and how long will we keep it?

- 4.1. We take your data privacy seriously and will only use your personal data for the purpose for which it was collected.
- 4.2. For every activity that we undertake using personal data we must be clear what our purpose is for that activity and have a Lawful Basis to process your data.
- 4.3. Where we process personal data that reveals special category data (article 9 UK GDPR) or personal data relating to criminal convictions and offences (article 10 UK GDPR) we require an additional condition to process.
- 4.4. We collect and process your personal data for the following purposes for which we collect certain categories of data and in order to lawfully process your data for those purposes we rely on these lawful bases and additional conditions.
